INDEX TO VOL. LXXVII

The titles of articles are printed in italics

AFR

AFRICAN possessions of Germany, The future of, 752–767, 768–771
Alien Enemy, The, within our Gates, 654–665
All-British cables and Inter-Imperial communications, 861–878
Alsace-Lorraine a Year Ago: Impressions of a French American, 479–492
American commerce and international politics, 238–256, 729–751
American Note, Causes and Consequences of the, 325–336
American's View of American Neutrality, 252–256
Andréadès (Prof. A.), The Macedonian Question from the Greek Point of View, 352–361
Armies, Our New: a Study and a Forecast, 648–653
Army training, Continental and British compared, 30–41
Atherley-Jones (Judge), The Government and the War, 1429–1441
Austria-Hungary, Impressions in, 1138–1151
Axham, The Case of Dr., 898–913

BABINGTON (C. H.), The 'New Policy' of Licensing Reform, 372–381; A Town in Northern France, March 1915, 888–897
Bahai Movement, The, and Abdul Baha, 452–466
Baker (Sir George Sherston), Are the Germans Pirates? 1384–1389
Balkan States, The Territorial Ambitions of the, 948–955
Barclay (Sir Thomas), Vengeance in War: a Study of Reprisals in Practice and the Case of Louvain, 52–59; The Rape of Belgium and the Plan that Failed, 257–267; Neutrality versus War, 573–583; The Hague and other War Conventions in Spirit and in Practice, 1203–1211

BOE

Barker (J. Ellis), The Chances of Peace and the Problem of Poland, 84–114; The Future of Constantinople, 493–522; Bismarck — and William II.: a Centenary Reflection, 772–796; Frederick the Great and William the Second, 1249–1276
Barker (Mr.), the bonesetter, and Dr. Axham, 898–913
Battine (Capt. Cecil), Wanted: a Military Constitution, 803–815; The Centenary of Waterloo, 1314–1319
Batty (Robert B.), The 'New Policy' of Licensing Reform, 382–400
Bavaria, An Interrupted Sketching Tour in, 303–324
Beaconsfield (Earl of), Conservative and Imperialist leader, 168–193
Belgian refugees in England, and their hosts, 1371–1383
Belgique, La, d'aujourd'hui et la Belgique de demain, 797–802
Belgium on the Rack: a Bystander's Testimony, 41–51
Bensusan (S. L.), War and the Farmer, 830–840
Bernhardi (General von) and Germany's war methods, 257–267
Birds, their love-stories and tragedies, and Hart's Museum, 1183–1195
Birth- and Death-Rates, The Truth about, 841–847; a rejoinder to, 1407–1415
Bismarck—and William II.: a Centenary Reflection, 772–796
Black (Stephen), Religion and Rebellion: the Psychology of the Boers, 914–919
Blake (Sir Henry A.), The Order of St. John of Jerusalem, 1362–1370
Bland (J. O. P.), Self-appointed Statesmen, 560–572, 963–964, 1211–1212
Blane (William), The Japanese in China, 1103–1118
Blyth (Estelle), The Greek Easter at Jerusalem, 934–947
Boers as rebels and as British patriots 914–919

BOH

Bohemians, Poles, Magyars, Roumanians, and pro-Germans in Austria, 1138–1151
Brants (I. I.), The War of Purification: a Dutchman's View, 523–530
Brend (William A.), The Passing of the Child, 584–602; reply to, 841–47; a rejoinder, 1407–1415
Brewer's views on Licensing Reform, 372–381
Bright (Charles), Telegraphs in War-Time, 861–878
British Art galleries, 1390–1406
British Imperial strategy and Colonial Defence forces, 685–697
Brooks (Sydney), The United States and the War, 238–251
Bryce's (Lord) Committee's Report on German atrocities, 1234–1248
Bulgaria and Greek Macedonia, 352–361

CABLES and telegraphs, British communications and foreign control, 861–878
Calza-Bedolo (Gino), Italy and Intervention, 956–963
Child, The Passing of the, 584–602; 1407–1415; reply, 841–847
China and the War, 531–559
China, The Japanese in, 1103–1118
Christian and anti-Christian ideals in Germany, 1084–1091
Christian chivalry, the New Armies, and our Holy War, 648–653
Christian missions and the War, 159–167
Colonies as participating nations in Imperial policy, 965–986
Colquhoun (Mrs. Archibald), Work, Women, and Marriage, 1015–1028
Compulsory Military Service in England, 816–829
Compulsory training for home defence, voluntary enlistment for service abroad, 278–291
Conscription and readiness for war, 803–815, 1296–1313
Conscription, The Coming of, 1296–1313
Constantinople, The Future of, 493–522
Contraband, cotton, copper, and neutrality, 325–336
Coulton (G. G.), The Volunteer Spirit, 19–29
Cregan (Col. T. A.), National or Voluntary Service? 'The Middle Way,' 278–291
Curtis (Dora), 'When Ignorance was Bliss'; July and August in North Central Siberia, 609–630

DARWIN, Nietzsche, and 'struggle for life,' 421–431

FOO

Dawson (William Harbutt), Some Personal Memories of Treitschke, 151–158
Dearmer (Rev. Percy), The Soul of Russia, 72–83
Delannoy (Paul), The Library of the University of Louvain, 1061–1071
Del Rè (Arundel), Why Italy went to War, 1320–1324
'Devil-Diplomatists' of Prussia, The —as seen in the Hotham Papers, 126–150
Dewar (George A. B.), An Individualist's Plea for Obligatory Service, 13–18
Dicey (Prof. A. V.), Wordsworth and the War, 1041–1060
Dimnet (Abbé Ernest), France and the Vatican, 1072–1083
Discharged Soldier, The Problem of the, 1029–1040
Dishonoured Army, A, 1213–1248
Disraeli the Third, 168–193
Doughty (Mr. Charles), his prophetic poems and the War, 631–647
Drink and the War, 1004–1014
Drunkenness, tied-houses, and taxation, 60–71
Dumas, Balzac, Hugo, Zola, and soldier-heroes, 1152–1164
Dunlop (Binnie), The Truth about Birth- and Death-Rates: a Reply to Dr. Brend, 841–847; a rejoinder to, 1407–1415

EAST AFRICA, German doings in, 768–771
Easter in Jerusalem, 934–947
Economic Strain on England and on Germany, The, 1325–1334
Ellis (Havelock), Richard Graves and 'The Spiritual Quixote,' 848–860
England, German hatred of, its inception and development, 987–1003
England's 'Commercial War' on Germany: a Conversation in Spain, 445–451
Entertaining of Refugees, 1371–1383
Ewart (Jessica Cossar), An Interrupted Sketching Tour in Bavaria, 303–324

FAMILY Council, A, 965–986
Farmers, the War, and the weather, 830–840
Feathered folk, their loves and laws, 1183–1195
Female labour, and marriage and birth rates, 1015–1028
Flecker (James Elroy), Paul Fort, the 'Prince of Poets,' 115–125
Food, Cost of, Sea freights and, 718–728

FOX

Fox (Frank), Belgium on the Rack: a Bystander's Testimony, 42–51
France, Alsace-Lorraine, and the War, 479–492
France and England, a hundred years ago and now, 1314–1319
France and the Vatican, 1072–1083
France before and after Waterloo, 194–226
Frederick the Great and William the Second, 1249–1276
Frederick William the First of Prussia and his Court, 126–150
Free Trade, Protection, and capture of German industries, 698–717
Freeman (John), Poetry, Prophecy, and the War, 631–647
French ballads of Paul Fort, 115–125
French patriot, Count Albert de Mun, 409–420
Frodsham (Bishop), The Effects of the War upon Non-Christian Peoples, 159–167; Temperance Reform in Russia, 401–408; What is Wrong with German Christianity? 1084–91
Frontiers, natural and artificial, and ethnic affinities, 1119–1137

GERMAN-AMERICAN, The, 879–887
German atrocities in Belgium, 42–51, 52–59; violation of Belgian neutrality, 257–267
German Atrocities in France, 1213–1248
German Christianity, What is Wrong with, 1084–1091
German 'frightfulness' and Nietzsche's Darwinism, 421–431
German Hate: its Causes and Meaning, 987–1003
German intrigues with Balkan States and Turkey, 948–955
German invasion of Belgium, 257–267
German Kultur at Louvain, 1061–1071
German Literature, The Evolution of Imperialism in, 1348–1361
German prosperity wrecked by over-reaching ambition, Kaiser Wilhelm and Louis Quatorze, 1178–1182
German soldiers in fact and fiction, 1165–1177
German unity, Prussian Kultur, and Treitschke, 151–158
Germanisation of England and Holland, 523–530
Germans, Are they Pirates? 1384–89
Germans in England, destitute aliens now and a hundred years ago, 654–665
Germans, What they did in East Africa, 768–771
Germany, Africa, and the Terms of Peace, 752–767

JOH

Germany and its neighbours, Bismarck's policy, 772–796
Germany in Peace and in War: a Glimpse from Within, 666–678
Germany's Might, The Source of, 268–77
Gladstone (W. G. C.), 1196–1202
Government and the War, 1429–1441
Graham (Douglas), Laisser-faire or Protection? a Study in Half-Truths, 698–717
Graves (Richard) and 'The Spiritual Quixote,' 848–860
'Great War,' Thoughts on the Waging of, 30–41
Greek Easter, The, at Jerusalem, 934–947
Guérard (Prof. A. L.), Alsace-Lorraine a Year Ago: Impressions of a French American, 479–492

HAGUE, The, and other War Conventions in Spirit and in Practice, 1203–1211
Hart's Museum at Christchurch, 1183–1195
Holbach (Mrs.), The Bahai Movement: with some Recollections of Meetings with Abdul Baha, 452–466
Holdich (Col. Sir Thomas), Political Boundaries, 1119–1137
Home Defence, obligatory service and voluntary enlistment, 1–29, 268–291
Home Railways during the War, 920–33
Hotham (Sir Charles) and Frederick William the First of Prussia, 126–150

IMPERIAL co-partnership between the Mother Country and the Colonies, 965–986
Imperial System, Our, 685–697
Imperialism in German literature, 1348–1361
International law, contraband, blockade, aircraft, reprisals, neutral trading, and foreign enlistment, 52–59, 573–583, 729–751
Intoxicating liquors in Russia, spirits and vodka, 401–408
Irishman's career in Wisconsin, An, 1335–1347
Italy and Intervention, 956–963
Italy, Why she went to War, 1320–1324

JAPANESE in China, The, 1103–1118
Jennings (H. J.), Unemployment and the War, 227–237; Home Railways during the War, 920–933
Jerusalem during Easter, 934–947
Johnston (Sir Harry H.), Germany, Africa, and the Terms of Peace, 752–767

KEE

KEENE (Col. A.), The Source of Germany's Might, 268–277
Kennedy (J. M.), Causes and Consequences of the American Note, 325–336
Kinloch-Cooke (Lady), Letters from Paris and Soissons of a Hundred Years Ago: II. The 'Hundred Days'—and After, 194–226
Kinloch-Cooke (Sir Clement), The Coming of Conscription, 1296–1313
Kitchener's Army and methods of recruiting, 292–302

LABOUR Exchanges, wage-earners, and the War, 227–237
Laisser-faire or Protection? a Study in Half-Truths, 698–717
Lane (Mrs. John), The German-American, 879–887
Lathbury (D. C.), Right and Wrong Methods of Recruiting, 292–302; Drink and the War, 1004–1014
Licensing Reform: a New Policy, 60–71; The 'New Policy of,' 372–400
Lilly (W. S.), 'The' Party System Breaks Down,' 1442–1451
Logic and Science, 1092–1102
Logic, Is it Effete? 679–684
Louis Quatorze the Second, 1178–1182
Louvain, and Vengeance in War, 42–51, 52–59
Louvain, The Library of the University of, 1061–1071

McCABE (Joseph), Imperialism in German Literature, 1348–1361
McCarthy of Wisconsin, 1335–1347
MacColl (D. S.), The National and Tate Galleries, 1390–1406
Macedonian Question, The, from the Greek Point of View, 352–361
Machray (Robert), The Resiliency of Russia, 1277–1295
Mahan (Admiral) on American isolation and German ambition, 252–256
Manchuria, Korea, Tsingtau, and relations between China and Japan, 1103–1118
Marriott (J. A. R.), The Problem of the Near East, 337–351; A Family Council, 965–986
Masterman (Right Hon. Charles), W. G. C. Gladstone, 1196–1202
Maud (Constance E.), 'The Watcher' and his Feathered Friends, 1183–1195
Maude (Col. F. N.), The Case for Volunteers, 1–12
May (H. R. D.), The Immorality of the Modern Burglar Story and Burglar Play, 432–444

OBL

Mercer (Bishop), Nietzsche and Darwinism, 421–431
Mercier (Dr. Charles), Science and Logic, 362–371; replies to, 679–684, 1092–1102; rejoinder, 1416–1428
Methodology and scientific thought, 1092–1102
'Middle Way, The': National or Voluntary Service? 278–291
Military Constitution, Wanted: a, 803–815
Military service, compulsory and voluntary compared, 268–291, 803–829, 1296–1313
Modern Burglar Story and Burglar Play, The Immorality of the, 432–444
Moncrieff (Canon Scott), Our New Armies: a Study and a Forecast, 648–653
Morgan (Professor J. H.), Our Imperial System, 685–698; German Atrocities in France, 1213–1233
Morocco, German designs in Africa, and terms of peace, 752–767
Mun, Le Comte de, 409–420

NAPOLEON, Alexander the First, and Constantinople, 493–522
Napoleonic Wars and Wordsworth's statesmanship, 1041–1060
National and Tate Galleries, The, 1390–1406
National Government and Party system, 1442–1453
National or Voluntary Service? 278–302
Naval war and supply of food, 718–728
Near East, Problems in the, 948–964
Near East, The Problem of the, 337–351
Neo-Malthusianism and falling birth-rates, 584–602, 1407–1415
Neutral Merchant, The: Three American Notes and the Answers, 729–751
Neutrality, American, An American's View of, 252–256
Neutrality versus War, 573–583
Nietzsche and Darwinism, 421–431
Nolan (R. S.), Impressions in Austria-Hungary, 1138–1151; Germany in Peace and in War, 666–678; A Dishonoured Army, 1234–1248
Northern France, A Town in: March 1915, 888–897
Novelists of the eighteenth century, Richard Graves and others, 848–860

OBLIGATORY Service, An Individualist's Plea for, 13–18

PAR

PARIS and Soissons a Hundred Years ago, Letters from: The Hundred Days—and After, 194–226
Parker (Oscar), An American's View of American Neutrality, 252–256
Parliament and patriotism, Mr. Gladstone's grandson, 1196–1202
Part (Alexander F.), Licensing Reform: a New Policy, 60–71; replies, 372–400
Party System Breaks Down, 1442–51
Paterson (Arthur), The Alien Enemy within our Gates, 654–665; Problem of the Discharged Soldier, 1029–1040
Peace conditions, indemnities, and reparation for crimes, 752–797
Peace, The Chances of, and the Problem of Poland, 84–114
Persian martyrs, Babis and Bahais, 452–466
Piggott (Sir Francis), China and the War, 531–559; The Neutral Merchant: Three American Notes and the Answers, 729–751
Plunkett (Sir Horace), McCarthy of Wisconsin, 1335–1347
Poetry, Prophecy, and the War, 631–647
Poland, its past and its future, 84–114
Political Boundaries, 1119–1137
Pope Pius the Tenth and Church and State in France, 1072–1083
Press-gang, posse comitatus, militia ballot, feudal tenures, and national defence, 816–829
'Prince of Poets,' The, Paul Fort, 115–125
Problems of To-day and To-morrow, 1004–1040
Professional Classes, The, the War, and the Birth-rate, 603–608
Prohibitionist's views on Licensing Reform, 382–400
Protection, Laisser-faire or, 698–717
Pruen (Dr. S. T.), What the Germans did in East Africa, 768–771
Prussia under Frederick the Great and under William the Second, 1249–1276
Prussian Army reforms since Frederick the Great, 268–277
Prussian diplomacy under Frederick William the First, 126–150
Prussian progress under Bismarck and decline under William the Second, 772–796
Prussianised Germany and Germans in England, 666–678
Public-houses, drunkenness, and licensing reform, 60–71, 372–400

'RAFFLES,' and moral danger of burglar stories, 432–444
Rape of Belgium, The—and the 'Plan' that Failed, 257–267

STA

Recruiting, Right and Wrong Methods of, 292–302
Red Cross work, St. John's Ambulance Association, and the ancient Knights of St. John, 1362–1370
Refugees, On the Entertaining of, 1371–1383
Religion and Rebellion: the Psychology of the Boers, 914–919
Renwick (W. H.), Sea Freights and the Cost of Food, 718–728
Reprisals in war and Hague Convention, 52–59
Richardson (Mrs.), The Professional Classes, the War, and the Birth-rate, 603–608
Rowland-Brown (Lilian), Some French and German Soldiers of Fiction, 1152–1177
Russia, The Soul of, 72–83
Russian trade and natural wealth of Siberia, 609–630
Russia, The Resiliency of, 1277–1295
Ruthless war and forbidden methods, 1203–1211

ST. JOHN of Jerusalem, The Order of, 1362–1370
Science and Logic, 362–371; reply to, 1092–1102; a rejoinder, 1416–1428
Sea Freights and the Cost of Food, 718–728
Sellers (Edith), On the Entertaining of Refugees, 1371–1383
Shadwell (Dr. Arthur), German Hate: its Causes and Meaning, 987–1003
Sharpe (Sir Alfred), The Territorial Ambitions of the Balkan States, 948–955
Shaw (Mr. G. B.), Mr. H. G. Wells, and war's realities, 560–572
Shelton (H. S.), Logic and Science, 1092–1102; a rejoinder to, 1416–1428
Siberia, North Central, July and August in, 609–630
Sichel (Walter), Disraeli the Third, 168–193
Simpson (H. B.), Compulsory Military Service in England, 816–829
Slav characteristics and future of Russia, 72–83
Soldiers, Industrial training for, 1029–1040
Soldiers of Fiction, Some French and German, 1152–1177
South African Dutch, as Calvinists, rebels, and loyal subjects, 914–919
Spanish trade and the War, 445–451
'Spiritual Quixote,' Richard Graves and the, 848–860
Statesmen, Self-appointed, 560–572, 963–964, 1211–1212, 1453

STE

Stebbing (E. P.), Timber Supplies and the War, 467–478
Steel-Maitland (Arthur), The Economic Strain on England and on Germany, 1325–1334
Stirling (Mrs.), The 'Devil-Diplomatists' of Prussia—as seen in the Hotham Papers, 126–150

TATE Gallery and British and foreign pictures, 1390–1406
Tavernier (Eugène), Le Comte de Mun, 409–420
Telegraphs in War-Time, 861–878
Temperance Reform in Russia, 401–408
Thomson (Rev. J. E. H.), Is Logic Effete? a Criticism, 679–684; a rejoinder to, 1416–1428
Thought, and art of reasoning, 362–371, 1092–1102
Timber Supplies and the War, 467–478
Torture, Mediæval, and German 'frightfulness,' 42–51
Treitschke, Some Personal Memories of, 151–158
Triple Alliance, Italian neutrality, and Anglo-Italian friendship, 956–963
Tsingtao, Hong Kong, and the War, 531–559
Turkey, Egypt, and future of Constantinople, 493–522
Turkish Empire, its triumphs and decline, 337–351

UNEMPLOYMENT and the War, 227–237
United States, German-Americans, Prince Henry of Prussia, and the Kaiser's gifts, 879–887
United States, The, and the War, 238–251

VANDERVELDE (Emile), La Belgique d'aujourd'hui et la Belgique de demain, 797–802
Vatican, France and the, 1072–1083
Vengeance in War: a Study of Reprisals in Practice and the Case of Louvain, 52–59
Voluntary or Compulsory Service? 803–829
Volunteer Spirit, The, 19–29

YOX

Volunteers, The Case for, 1–12
Voluntary or Compulsory Service? 1–9

WALTON (Rev. J. L.), The Case of Dr. Axham, 898–913
War and British railways, 920–933
War and peace, Belgium and its future, 797–802
War and the Farmer, 830–840
War, China and the, 531–559
War, Economic results of the, upon Germany and England, 1325–1334
War, Italy's reasons for joining the Allies in the, 1320–1324
War munitions, shortage of labour, alcohol and cheap tea, 1004–1014
War of Purification, The: a Dutchman's View, 523–530
War, Russia's fortunes and tactics in the, 1277–1295
War, The, and prophets and poets, 631–647; and birth and death-rates and emigration, 584–607, 841–847
War, The Effects of the, upon Non-Christian Peoples, 159–167
War, The Government and the, 1429–41
War-time adventures of a lady artist, 303–324
Watcher, The, and his Feathered Friends, 1183–1195
Waterloo, How to Celebrate the Centenary of, 1314–1319
Wells (H. G.), 'Self-appointed Statesmen,' 963–964, 1453
'When Ignorance was Bliss'; July and August in North Central Siberia, 609–630
Whigs and Tories, modern Parties, and National Government, 1442–53
Whishaw (Mrs. Bernard), England's 'Commercial War' on Germany: a Conversation in Spain, 445–451
Wilkinson (Spenser), Thoughts on the Waging of 'Great War,' 30–41
Wood-famine and scientific forestry, 467–478
Wordsworth and the War, 1041–1060
Work for demobilised soldiers, 1029–40
Work, women, and marriage, 1015–28

YOXALL (Sir James), Louis Quatorze the Second, 1178–1182

PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE AND CO. LTD., LONDON
COLCHESTER AND ETON